Information and Privacy Commissioner to release investigation report on BC Government's open government initiative

VICTORIA—On Thursday July 25 at 10:15 a.m., B.C. Information and Privacy Commissioner Elizabeth Denham will release Investigation Report F13-03: Evaluating the Government of British Columbia's Open Government Initiative.

The report will evaluate the three core elements of the B.C. Government's open government program: open information (the proactive disclosure of records), open data (making raw data available and accessible to the public), and a disclosure log (the public release of government's replies to general access to information requests).

The report will be available for download at: www.oipc.bc.ca

A province-wide news release will be issued summarizing the report.
