

Protecting privacy. Promoting transparency.

External Advisory Board Information and Privacy Commissioner for British Columbia

Dr. Jennifer Stoddart, former Privacy Commissioner of Canada—

Jennifer Stoddart holds a BA in history and modern language (University of Toronto), a MA in history (Université du Québec à Montréal), and a BCL (Faculty of Law, McGill University). Dr. Stoddart was Privacy Commissioner of Canada from 2003 to 2013. She has since been a Visiting Scholar at the Centre of Genomics and Policy of the Faculty of Medicine, McGill University, a Mentor at the Trudeau Foundation, and the Honorary Lt. Col. of a reserve combat engineering regiment of the Canadian Armed Forces. For her contributions to data protection law and public policy she was awarded an honorary doctorate from the University of Ottawa and McGill University, the Order of Canada, the distinction of Advocate Emeritus from the Quebec Bar, as well as the Vanguard Award from the IAPP.